FASHIONISTA'S FABULOUS FALL 2011

New York's Fashion Week sets the tone for what we will be wearing this fall 2011, but Charlotte is also host to our very own Charlotte Seen Fashion Week that will set the pace for all Fashionistas. Fall is most definitely the season to include new classic items as well as trendy pieces in your wardrobe to "update" your look.

Recently, I attended Belk's "Hello Beautiful," fall preview and was inspired by Arlene Goldstein, VP of Trend Merchandising and Fashion Direction. She mentioned that many of this fall's fashions are inspired by the Mad Men TV Series. I personally love the show, and am delighted with all of its amazing fashions. Not to mention, being on trend is what Arlene does best!

Your wardrobe this year should include a few classic pieces such as a turtleneck top, a sheath dress and definitely a pencil skirt. Arlene hit the bull's eye target on all of these pieces. You can partner existing pieces from your wardrobe with these basic pieces and have your Vogue Look without breaking the bank.

Add a few fashion jewelry pieces from Vince Camuto's Collection including a chain necklace (staple piece that will last an eternity) and layered bangles, and you will have fall all wrapped up!

These simple pieces will take you from your favorite football tailgate to Red Carpet events looking A-List Ready!
